

Carolyn Williams-Lawyer, CISA, CIGA

Carolyn is responsible for Information Technology (IT) services and related activities. A heavy emphasis is currently placed on the security of IT resources. Maintaining the confidentiality, integrity, and availability of resources is a goal of IT services. Duties include management consulting, investigations, IT audits, policy development, planning, purchasing/contractual advisory, and IGS technology project development.