

April Ulrich, MS

April coordinates the administrative functions within the Office of Inspector General Services. She is responsible for interpreting human resources and administrative policies and for recommending procedures to put these policies into effect. She handles all matters concerning payroll, human resources, budgets, and purchasing.