

Eric Reeves, CPA

Eric is responsible for conducting audits (compliance, performance, and financial related) of the various departments, units and programs at the University. He is also available for consulting projects and to assist with investigations.