

Heather Harrell, CPA

Heather is responsible for conducting audits (compliance, performance, and financial related) of the various departments, units and programs at the University. She is also available for consulting projects and to assist with investigations.